Master's Programme on International News Production - First Intake 2019
National Research University - Higher School of Economics (HSE)

Please note that the Faculty of communications, media and design of the National Research University - Higher School of Economics (HSE) requested this mission to provide due publicity for the first intake of the English language Master's programme on "International News Production".

The National Research University - Higher School of Economics (HSE) is consistently ranked as one of the top Russian universities and leaders in the Russian education. Also, it's one of the preeminent universities of Economics and Social sciences in Eastern Europe and Eurasia. Having rapidly grown into a well-renowned research university in the last two decades, HSE stands out in terms of its international presence and cooperation.

The 'International News Production' Master's programme provides an opportunity to master the latest innovations that will allow students to work effectively in the modern news outlets - both globally and locally. It helps to build the skills in news analysis and the agenda setting in modern media environment.

In view of the rapidly growing demand for this sector, the university encourages both of Russian and foreign media employees, as well as specialists from the other spheres with fluent English to join this full time 2 year master's programme, on payment basis. (Full course fee is Rub. 400,000.00 equivalent to USD 6155.00)
